

Dinner with Polish Folk Show

Kraków is famous for its unique history and rich cultural heritage. It is said that the magic of this city comes from a remarkable harmony between tradition and modernity. Tonight we would like you to become familiar with the richness and diversity of Polish culture and cuisine, by offering you an opportunity to attend a thrilling dinner with folk group performance, which will add splendour to the evening.

During this unique event you will experience a memorable show of main Polish national dances such as: Krakowiak, Polonez, Mazur, Oberek and Kujawiak, performed by passionate group of people in traditional regional costumes. At the same time, our restaurant team will make every effort to satisfy your cuisine demands, by providing homemade Polish specials and delicacies.

We organize Polish Folk Show on our client's request, mostly for organized groups.
